THE HOME MISSION MONTHLY.

Are you a subscriber to this magazine? If not please consider some reasons why you should be.

It is the only strictly home mission magazine in the Presbyterian Church.

It is progressive in matter and manner.

It gives present day facts freshly gleaned direct from the field for each number.

Its illustrations are up-to-date and are made expressly for its pages after the most approved methods.

Its columns abound with telling incidents, latest news, and suggestive plans.

It is the organ of the Woman's Board of Home Missions and indispensable to an intelligent understanding of mission school work.

Price, 50 cents yearly. Send subscriptions to the treasurer, Miss S. F. Lincoln, Box 158, Madison Square Branch P. O., New York City. Address all other communications concerning the magazine to the editor, Mrs. D. E. Finks.

OVER SEA AND LAND.

An attractive magazine for young people, bands and Sunday Schools. It tells the story of mission fields at home and abroad and shows how the young may share in this grand work.

Brief articles, short stories, and pleasing illustrations fill its pages. Every Presbyterian boy and girl needs it.

Published jointly by the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Boards of the Presbyterian Church. Price, yearly, single subscription, 35 cents; in clubs of five or more, mailed to one address, 25 cents each. Send subscriptions to Room 503 Witherspoon Building, 1319 Walnut St., Philadelphia, Pa., making checks payable to Over Sea and Land.

Illustrated Lectures

by Rev. D. E. Finks.

About 100 beautifully colored Stereopticon Slides are given in each of the three Lectures delivered by Mr. Finks, showing the condition of many classes in our land, Mexicans, Indians, Alaskans, etc., etc.

THIS way of representing our Mission work is of such a popular nature that wherever the lectures are presented they never fail to arouse great interest, even among the most indifferent, increasing contributions to the important work of Home Missions.

Particulars concerning engagements and terms can be obtained by addressing Woman's Board of Home Missions, Box 156 Madison Square Branch P. O., New York City.
